Easter Day

4th April 2021

ENCOUNTER God's love
GROW in Christ
LIVE by the Spirit

OUR VISION:

Through Jesus Christ we are called to lead people to God.
(based on Matthew 28.19-20)

Sentence:

The Lord is risen indeed, alleluia!

Prayer of the Day

Brightness of God's glory, whom death could not conquer nor the tomb imprison:
as you have shared our frailty in human flesh,
help us to share your immortality in the Spirit;
let no shadow of the grave terrify us,
and no fear of darkness turn our hearts from you.
Reveal yourself to us this day and all our days,
as the First and the Last,
the Living One,
our immortal Saviour and Lord. Amen.

Reflection

"So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid."
 (Mark 16.8)

"A less chocolatey Easter."

I loved Easter as a child. All the lovely food, and with none of the social family 'issues' that Christmas usually brings. I say lovely food, but what I mean simply is chocolate. As I got older Easter became more complicated, and we get to see some of that complication in the readings for Easter Day – they are not of unalloyed joy, there are no chocolate bunnies.

Mark's Gospel, with what is widely considered to be the original ending, is an extraordinary account of the resurrection, most likely the earliest Gospel account of it, too. It starts with grief and ends in fear. There is no mention of joy in that reading, even less, Easter joy.

Paul's first letter to the Corinthians predates the Gospels and is most likely the earliest account of the resurrection in the Bible. There, Paul passes on the account he has himself received. This proclamation of the resurrection does not itself mention things that we often think are part of that account – there is no empty tomb or folded grave clothes. Paul is almost terse; Jesus died for our sins, he was buried and now is risen.

There was much to love about Easter as a child, but I now have to be careful with the amount of chocolate I eat. There is even more to love in the complexity and depth of the accounts of the resurrection, as these scriptures show. I can freely dive in deeply here.

 Bishop of the Southern Region
