LOVE, JOY and PEACE

Reading the Psalms is peaceful.

Psalm 3:5 I lay down and slept. I woke up in safety, for the Lord was watching over me.

Psalm 4:8 I will lie down in peace and sleep, for you alone, O Lord, will keep me safe.

Psalm 23:2b He leads me beside still waters.

Psalm 29:11 The Lord gives his people strength. The Lord blesses them with peace.

Psalm 32:7 You are my hiding place; you protect me from trouble.
You surround me with songs of victory.

Every psalm is a key that opens the door to a life of spiritual bliss.

Do you read the Psalms on a regular basis? Why?

Please pray for:

Joseph, Omar,
Jacinta, Wilma, Lionel,
Grace, Simon & Cloe

These names will only remain for the calendar month unless a request to continue is received.

Reflection

"Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them." (Ephesians 5.11)

"Speaking up"

A girl was walking along a path, and ahead of her she recognises three girls who appear to be arguing. Two of those people were teaming up against the third, and they were well known for not being kind. Rather than assist, the girl crosses the street hoping to prevent the others' attention on herself. She lowers her head and walks past quickly, thinking that "It's better that it's someone else and not me".

In the passage from Ephesians above we are encouraged not to take part in "unfruitful works of darkness". By not speaking up about harm we allow the darkness to continue, to grow. We unwittingly become participants ourselves. It takes great bravery, but by speaking up, speaking out and exposing the darkness to the light of truth, you are helping others and yourself.

Recently, growing movements such as Black Lives Matter and MeToo encourage us to speak up against the darkness. We must be courageous and if we ever see the darkness or are hurt by it, speak up!

Let's speak up knowing that we will be supported in the loving arms of God.

Beth Miller, a Year 11 student at St Aidan's Anglican Girls School and a parishioner at St Matthew's, Sherwood, wrote this devotion with the support of school chaplain The Rev'd Gillian Moses.
