Prayer of the Day

Saving God,
whose Son, Jesus Christ, healed the sick and brought them wholeness of body and mind:
inspire us, his disciples,

who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Reflection

"...those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength." (Isaiah 40.31)

The Lord's renewing strength

Some years ago, as I sat with my mum at the hospital and listened to the doctor advise that my dad had cancer, which was inoperable and leaving him with 12 months at best, I remember thinking how life would never be the same again. My dad was a wonderful, generous and kind man. He was my go-to when I needed advice on any topic, an Ikea flat pack assembled or if I needed something repaired or fixed. Whom was I going to turn to when he was no longer here?

I couldn't comprehend or understand why God was 'taking' my dad. But I did know that I needed God to help me through that terrible time. I couldn't rely on my own strength to get through it. I needed to wait on God – to maintain my faith in that time of heartache and to believe that it was part of God's plan somehow. Only then would I have the strength and energy to cope, and to support and help my mum as well.

Ultimately, I had to accept that it was all in God's hands and part of his plan, despite our grief and the overwhelming sense that there was huge hole in our life left by my dad's passing.

How do you draw upon the Lord's renewing strength in your time of need?
