Cursillo is a Spanish word meaning 'little or short course'.

Cursillo is also a movement of the Church providing a method by which Christians are empowered to grow through prayer, study and action and enabled to share God's love with everyone.

It began in Spain in the 1940s, reaching Australia in 1979 and is now in most of the Australian Anglican dioceses.

The first step of Cursillo is participation in a short course in Christian living which is usually 3 days in community experiencing talks by team members, discussions, praying, worship, reflections and lots of singing, laughing, food and growing together.

Those who have experienced the short course ('Cursillistas') are encouraged in their daily relationship with Jesus Christ and in their discipleship ('Fourth Day') through regular meetings of encouragement with fellow travellers.

Reflection

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

"David danced before the Lord with all his might..." (2 Samuel 6.14)
Every now and then I like to slip into the back rows of a darkened mega church, under a veil of anonymity, so I can more easily let go of my inhibitions, forget myself and praise God through dance, song and tears. Take away the anonymity though and I wonder, how would I feel? I also wonder about my motives—am I praising God simply for who He is or am I praising God because He benefits me?

In 2 Samuel 6.14, King David dances for God with all his might in full public view. He doesn't hold back—worshipping God wholeheartedly without any self-consciousness, giving God the praise He is due, even though everyone is watching. David was later criticised for his seemingly undignified behaviour. David responds by saying, "It was before the Lord, who chose me...I will celebrate before the Lord. I will become even more undignified than this, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes".

For David, there is no pride or shame when it comes to worship. King David's example inspires me to become more undignified and less self-focused for the one who chose me. As John the Baptist said, "He must become greater; I must become less."
It's time to 'cut loose' and dance for God like no one's watching, even if they are.
