Just Joking
 Because of the shortage of jobs in town, a boy approached a farmer for a job on the farm. The farmer decided to give him a try and told him to milk a cow, equipping him with a stool and a bucket. An hour later the boy returned dirty and sweaty, the bucket in one hand and the broken stool in the other.
 "Extracting the milk was easy," the boy explained. "The worst part was getting the cow to sit on the stool."

Reflection

"And they laughed at him" (Mark 5.40)

"And they laughed at him."

At Army Reserve camps some years ago, our chaplain used to conduct daily early morning Holy Communion in a most conspicuous area out in the open. Not entirely comfortable, I felt it was my duty to support him in this witness and so became his only daily congregation member. Members of the Unit, whom I knew well, often used to walk by with obviously amused looks, which may have extended to laughs in private Mark tells us of an incident in Jesus ministry, when one of the leaders of the Synagogue sought His help for a sick daughter. The leader was obviously confident in what Jesus could do, casting aside his dignity in distress. Nearing the Leader's home, Jesus was informed that the daughter had died, but Jesus ravelled on. On approaching the home, Jesus asked the crowd outside why they were mourning as the child was only sleeping. The response of the crowd we are told was, "And they laughed at him." This did not deter Jesus, as He continued His ministry by going inside the home and bringing healing to the girl. His focus did not shift.

We may, and most probably will, experience mild amusement, outright criticism, and even in today's world hostility, for our faith and beliefs, but we are safe in His keeping as was the little girl. Jesus is the ultimate in care, compassion and love, focused on what He can do.

All that remains is that we keep our focus on Jesus.
