Prayer of the Day

Loving God,
you have made us in your own image,
creating us male and female,
and you have consecrated the covenant of marriage
so that in it is signified the spiritual marriage between Christ
and his Church:

they may reflect in their lives your love for us all;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE KEY IDEA

Our way of life should be characterised by such qualities as purity, peacefulness, gentleness and friendliness. Also we need to display mercy and impartiality in our search for truth. All these qualities are needed to maintain peace in our community of faith. When we make sure that what's going on in our hearts is pure, the appropriate actions will flow out of them so we can humbly say, "I will show you my faith by what I do."
refer - James 2:18

Reflection

"For your steadfast love is before my eyes, and I walk in faithfulness to you." (Psalm 26.3)

"How my mum's love showed me God's love."

My mum raised me as a single parent. When I was around 15 years old, I realised how much my mum loved me and how difficult it was for her financially. However, she always ensured that I didn't feel this struggle and instead I felt privileged and that I never went without. She always made sure that I had Christmas presents by paying them off via layby and that I was sent to school every day with a large healthy lunch.

God's steadfast love was instilled in my mum. My mum's love for me in turn showed me God's love. Through the love that God instils in us, we are capable of doing the most amazing things for the people we care about, therefore teaching others that God's love is compassionate, generous and unconditional. Knowing that God's love is always present, I am motivated to go out into the community and help when I can. For example, I serve as an intern with the Diocese's Equitable Participation Working Group and Justice Unit to help neurotypical people understand how neurodivergent people, like me, can be better engaged.

Creating space for understanding is part of my walking faithfully to God. Witnessing other people's love and compassion, as they aid others, helps you to see God's love and inspires you to support your community in your own way.

Seeing God's unwavering love and compassion instilled in others help us to be faithful to him.
