Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost 12th September 2021

ENCOUNTER God's love
GROW in Christ
LIVE by the Spirit

OUR VISION:

Through Jesus Christ we are called to lead people to God.
(based on Matthew 28.19-20)

Sentence:

Those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for the sake of the gospel will save it.

Mark 8:35

Prayer of the Day

God of mercy,
help us to forgive as you have forgiven us,
to trust you even when hope is failing,
and to take up our cross daily
and follow you in your redeeming work;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings:

Proverbs 1:20-33
James 2:18-26

Psalm 19
Mark 8:27-38

Reflection

"but those who listen to me will be secure and will live at ease, without dread of disaster." (Proverbs 1.33)

"Are we listening?"

For some people, their everyday safety depends upon careful listening. Erik Weihenmayer suffers from a degenerative eye disease which caused him to lose his sight when he was 13, but this didn't stop him from reaching the top of Mt Everest in May 2001. Climbing a mountain where 90 per cent of climbers never make it to the top and where hundreds have died trying, Erik succeeded because he listened to guidance from members of the climbing group.

Erik Weihenmayer's story shows us what we can find and what we can achieve when we listen well. In today's Proverbs reading, Solomon tells us to listen to Wisdom as she cries out to us, calling us to listen to her counsel. In doing so, we will find God's safety, security and peace.

Listening to Christ is important for our Christian journey. The Gospels show us that Christ is wise and that he cares about wellbeing. What better way to listen to Christ then to read His Holy Word, The Bible?

Let us listen to Christ by diligently reading the Word of God.

Levina Fuller
